It was then announced that there is a vacancy for Inactive Vice Commander. Colonel Travis Bishop was nominated by Past Commander Stacy Smith, seconded by Colonel Rich Little. Travis was elected to take office immediately. He accepted the nomination and is looking forward to recruiting new Colonels.

ADJUTANT REPORT:

Adjutant Phillip Welch

It was reported that the Spring Dispatch was sent out and copy on website. Please let him know if you have not received it. He called on previous Adjutant Brian Jett for distribution of prior meeting minutes from Savannah. Copies were around the room to review.

HOSPITALITY REPORT:

Past Commander's Kellie Jett & Brian Jett

Members were thanked for donations supporting hospitality and bar expenses during the past year. Due to everyone pitching in there was very little cost for an outstanding bar. To help continue to offset costs they will continue to run stock the bar as well as cork pulls or other fun fundraising ideas for the bar costs.

Hospitality Coordinator Theresa Armour went over details for the cocktail party including location, time and dress. The weekend theme is Red, White and Blue.

IMMEDIATE PAST COMMANDER REPORT:

IMPC Michelle Walworth

spoke about the annual Pigeon Forge Meeting. It was highlighted that Commander Clark did an excellent job of showing up and showing out and representing Georgia well. Even taking home a prize or two.

She then announced that the nominations for the 2027 offices will be held on 7/25/26 at Colonel's Tim and Barbara Dobbs' house. She went over the timeline and rules and made sure everyone knew that no one should announce their intentions before 7/1. Nominations will be held at the July nomination meeting and elections will be at August Trimester meeting.

IPC Walworth concluded her report by announcing the Life Member and Past Commander raffle ticket sales are ongoing with the winner being drawn in January at the Winter meeting.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS REPORT:

Sergeant-At- Arms David Armour

Many people were mentioned and fined for various reasons. There was over $40 collected during the meeting. Please note- treasurers' report at August meeting should show exact total.*

S-A-A Armour also announced that thanks to us saving pop tops he was able to help raise over $50 for a local organization.
